

Privacy Policy

We receive and store data, including personal data, that you submit to the website such as name, e-mail address, telephone number as well as the Internet protocol (IP) address used to connect your device to the internet. This information and data will be stored on a password protected device in line with the Data Protection Act 2018. No data will be shared as your security is important to us.

The collected data may be used for marketing purposes. All data entered into the website and received via email or referral form will be stored for 7 years on a client database in accordance with the Veterinary Surgeons Act 2006.

The above privacy policy may be subject to change at any point. By using the website and Goldney EquinePhysio services, you are agreeing to the privacy policy stated above.

Private information for the purposes of sending newsletters and promotions will be stored if the client opts in to this service. If you wish to be removed from this service, please contact us directly.

If you do not wish for your personal data to be stored, please contact us directly.
